

CEO of Cassiani Law Office, Tax Attorney

Attorney Cassiani is a highly sought-after national speaker. He has taught thousands of Financial Advisors, and CPA's on Advance Estate and Retirement Planning. Attorney Cassiani has been quoted in national and local publications and he has been a frequent guest on the radio show "Senior Power." He has also authored the book "Wealth Creation and Preservation: What You Don't Know CAN Hurt You."

Attorney Cassiani has helped hundreds of individuals in Estate and Financial Planning, including charitable planning, business succession planning and legacy planning creating both living legacies and death legacies.

In addition to his Law Degree, Attorney Cassiani has a master's degree in the taxation and an MBA degree in business.

Mr. Cassiani was a co-founder and served as director, legal counsel and chief financial officer of Angelus Retirement Corp. (elderly assistance), and the Addison-Rand Corp. (a senior housing management company), both national in scope. He was also the individual who proposed and subsequently led the development of and the successful implementation of an advanced financial services division for a Fortune 500 financial services organization. In addition, he was the leader in the development of a national trust company where he was an officer and served on the original board or directors.

Today, his focus is on helping individuals locally and across the country to protect their assets from the consequences of taxation, probate, health care and market volatility. His focus is on asset protection and growth.
